

Audit and Finance Committee Charter

The Audit and Finance Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Garrett Motion Inc. (the “Company”) shall review this Charter on an annual basis and recommend any changes to the Board for approval.

I. Composition

The Committee shall be composed of three or more members of the Board who meet the independence requirements established for audit committee members under the listing standards and rules of the national securities exchange on which the Company’s common stock is listed and the more rigorous independence rules for members of the Committee issued by the Securities and Exchange Commission, subject in each case to applicable transition provisions or exceptions. Each Committee member must be financially literate as determined by the Board in its business judgment. At least one member of the Committee must be a financial expert as defined under the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The members of the Committee shall be approved by the Board on the recommendation of the Nominating and Governance Committee and may be removed by the Board at any time. The Committee’s chairperson shall be designated by the Board or, if not so designated, the members of the Committee shall elect a chairperson by a vote of the majority of the full Committee. The Committee may form and delegate authority to subcommittees when appropriate.

No Committee member shall simultaneously serve on the audit committees of more than two other public companies unless the Board determines that such simultaneous service does not impair the ability of such member to effectively serve on the Committee.

II. Meetings

The Committee shall meet at least four times each fiscal year. Meetings shall be called by the chairperson of the Committee or, if there is no chairperson, by a majority of the members of the Committee. Meetings may be held telephonically or by other electronic means to the extent permitted by the Company’s organizational documents and applicable law. Committee actions may be taken by unanimous written consent.

The Committee shall meet separately, periodically, with (i) management, (ii) the internal auditor or other personnel responsible for the internal audit function (collectively, the “internal auditor”), and (iii) the independent auditors in separate executive sessions. The independent auditor and the internal auditor may each request that the chairperson of the Committee or, if there is no chairperson, a majority of the members of the Committee, call a meeting of the Committee at which the independent auditor or the internal auditor, as applicable, is present.

III. Purpose

The Committee shall provide assistance to the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities relating to oversight as set forth below. The Committee shall oversee (i) the integrity of the Company’s financial statements, (ii) engagement, compensation and performance of the independent auditor, as well as the independent auditor's qualifications and independence, (iii) the performance of the Company's internal audit function and its system of internal controls, (iv) compliance with legal and regulatory requirements, (v) oversight of the Company's financial and enterprise risk and (vi) oversight of the Company's plans, practices and policies concerning significant financial matters. In addition, the Committee shall prepare the report of the Committee required to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement under the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Company's management is responsible for preparing the Company's financial statements and the independent auditors are responsible for auditing those financial statements. The Committee is responsible for overseeing the conduct of these activities by the Company's management and the independent auditors.

IV. Responsibilities

The Committee shall:

1. Review the results of each external audit of the Company's financial statements, including any certification, report, opinion or review rendered by the independent auditor in connection with the financial statements.
2. Review other matters related to the conduct of the audit that are communicated to the Committee under generally accepted auditing standards and rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission.
3. Based on the review under 1 and 2 above, the Committee will advise the Board whether it recommends that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K and prepare the Committee report to be included in the Company's proxy statement in accordance with Securities and Exchange Commission rules.
4. Review with management and the independent auditors, prior to the filing thereof, the Company's annual and interim financial results (including Management's Discussion and Analysis) to be included in Forms 10-K and 10-Q, respectively, and the matters required to be communicated to the Committee under generally accepted auditing standards and rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission.
5. Appoint the firm to be engaged as the Company's independent auditor, which firm shall report directly to the Committee. The Committee shall be directly responsible for the compensation, retention and oversight of the independent auditor, including the resolution of disagreements between management and the independent auditor regarding financial reporting, and any other registered public accounting firm engaged for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or related work or performing other audit, review or attest services for the Company, and the independent auditor and each such other registered public accounting firm must report directly to the Committee. The Committee shall have the sole authority to pre-approve all audit engagement fees and terms.
6. Review and discuss the types of information to be disclosed and the types of presentations to be made in connection with earnings releases and financial information and earnings guidance provided to analysts and ratings agencies, including the use of pro forma, adjusted or non-GAAP information. Such discussions may be general (consisting of discussing the types of information to be disclosed and the types of presentations to be made), and each earnings release or each instance in which the Company provides earnings guidance need not be discussed in advance.

7. At least annually, evaluate the independent auditor's performance and, if appropriate, approve its discharge.

8. Receive the written disclosures and the letter from the independent auditor required by the applicable requirements of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (the "PCAOB") regarding the independent auditor's communications with the Committee concerning independence. The Committee shall discuss with the auditor the scope of any disclosed relationships and their impact or potential impact on the auditor's independence and objectivity, and take appropriate action to satisfy itself of the auditor's independence. Confirm that the "lead partner," the "concurring partner" and the other "audit partner" rotation requirements under the listing standards and rules of the national securities exchange on which the Company's common stock is listed and the Securities and Exchange Commission, including Regulation S-X have been complied with.

9. At least annually, review reports by the independent auditor describing the auditor's internal quality control procedures, material issues raised by its most recent internal quality control review, peer review, or PCAOB review or inspection, or by any inquiry or investigation by governmental or professional authorities within the preceding five years and any steps taken to deal with any such issues, all relationships between the auditor and the Company and any audit problems or difficulties and management's response.

10. Pre-approve all non-audit engagements and fees with the independent auditor, either through express prior review and pre-approval or through the adoption of policies and procedures for engaging the independent auditor to perform services other than audit, review and attest services, unless such service falls within available exceptions under the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Between regularly scheduled meetings of the Committee, the chairperson of the Committee may pre-approve the terms and fees of non-audit engagements with the independent auditor. Any such pre-approvals by the chairperson of the Committee will be presented to the full Committee at its next regularly scheduled meeting.

11. Review reports of the independent auditor and the internal auditor related to the adequacy of the Company's internal controls, including any management letters and management's responses to recommendations made by the independent auditor or the internal auditor, disclosure processes and its procedures designed to ensure compliance with laws and regulations, and any special audit steps adopted in light of material control deficiencies.

12. Consider and review, in consultation with the independent auditor and the internal auditor, the scope and plan of forthcoming external and internal audits, the involvement of the internal auditors in the audit examination, the independent auditor's responsibility under generally accepted auditing standards and the responsibilities, budget, audit plan, activities, organizational structure and staffing of the internal audit function as needed.

13. Receive reports from the internal auditor on the status of significant findings and recommendations, and management's responses.
14. Review on an annual basis the performance of the internal audit function.
15. Review (a) the internal control report prepared by management, including management's assessment of the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting and (b) the Company's independent auditor's attestation, and report, on the assessment made by management, in each case, as and when required by Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. Discuss with management, the internal auditor and the independent auditor any changes in internal control over financial reporting disclosed or considered for disclosure in the Company's periodic filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
16. Review with management and the Company's independent auditor any reports or disclosure submitted by management to the Committee as contemplated by the certifications required under Section 302 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002.
17. Review and discuss, with management as appropriate, the Company's major enterprise and financial risk exposures, risk assessment and risk management policies.
18. Establish procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters and for the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters.
19. Review material legal and compliance matters involving the Company periodically with the Company's Senior Vice President and General Counsel and Director – Integrity and Compliance, it being understood that each such individual has express authority to communicate personally with the chairperson of the Committee about any such matter as appropriate.
20. Review with the Company's Director - Integrity and Compliance the implementation and effectiveness of the Company's integrity and compliance program and related matters.
21. Establish clear hiring policies regarding employees or former employees of the independent auditor.
22. Review and discuss the Company's plans, practices and policies concerning significant financial matters.
23. Review and discuss the Company's financial condition, liquidity and funding needs.
24. Review, discuss and make recommendations to the Board concerning proposed equity, debt or other securities offerings or other significant credit programs.

25. Review and approve the Company's hedging policies and practices to manage risk and volatility, including without limitation annual review and approval of the Company's election of the end-user exception to mandatory clearing of certain swap transactions.
26. Review, discuss and make recommendations to the Board concerning dividend strategy and declarations.
27. Review, discuss and make recommendations to the Board concerning stock repurchases.
28. Review and discuss tax strategy, the Company's effective tax rate and significant tax planning proposals.
29. Report regularly to the Board.
30. Undertake an annual performance evaluation of the activities of the Committee.
31. Perform any other activities consistent with this Charter, the Company's organizational documents, as required under the national securities exchange on which the Company's common stock is listed, the Securities and Exchange Commission or any other applicable regulatory requirements or as the Committee or the Board otherwise deems necessary or appropriate.

V. Resources

The Committee shall have the authority to retain or terminate, at its sole discretion, independent legal, accounting and other advisors, consultants or professionals (collectively, "Advisors") to assist the Committee in its responsibilities and shall be directly responsible for overseeing the work of such Advisors. The chairperson of the Committee, at the request of any member of the Committee, may request any officer, employee or advisor of the Company or the Company's independent auditor to attend a meeting of the Committee or otherwise respond to Committee requests.

The Committee shall have the sole authority to determine the terms of engagement and the extent of funding necessary (and to be provided by the Company) for payment of (a) compensation to the Company's independent auditor engaged for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or performing other audit, review or attest services for the Company, (b) any compensation to any Advisors retained to advise the Committee and (c) ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties.
